

Listening in:

Create by Spying on someone's conversation

Step 1--Listen in on someone else's conversation on the bus, at lunch, walking through the hall. Write down everything you can from the people involved as a real life story event.

Step 2--Take two or three lines of actual dialogue spoken from the original conversation but wrap it into a new fictional piece.